

Lusitania Challenge 2017

AJSP is pleased to invite you to participate in this year's Lusitania Challenge, a L'Art de La Guerre two day open tournament in Lisbon that occurs every year on the first weekend of September.

Responding to an old aspiration, this year the event will take place in the galleries of the Museu Militar de Lisboa, who kindly provided us with its facilities and its logistical support for the accomplishment of this event.

We will hold a tournament of L 'Art de La Guerre, 15mm, open to all rosters, at 200 pts, in five rounds. Demonstration / participation games of other systems are planned in parallel.

There will be prizes for the top three ranked and vouchers offered by stores that have decided to support the event.

Points and scale: 15mm armies up to 200 points. All figures to be painted and based and with an approximate resemblance to the historical troop type they are trying to represent Armies allowed: All army lists are authorized. The lists will not exceed 200 points.

Players will be able to send in two versions of the same list without any restrictions on the date or geographical origin. After announcing your list to your opponent, both players will place on the table the version of the list they will use before the initiative die roll. After all ambushes are revealed and flank marches have arrived, both players will check the other's list. All mistakes will be penalized by the umpire.

In order to make list checking easier, please use the following website to create your army list (allies in the last command): <http://www.littlearmydesigner.com/adg/fr>

Sign in and army lists to: All lists must be sent to the umpire by Friday 24th August 2017 to eventos_ajsp@ajsportugal.org

Pairings: In the first game players will be matched according to year of the army. From the second round, players will be matched by classification (1st w/2nd, 3rd w/4th and so on) and efforts will be made to avoid matching players from the same club.
